Case Scenario

COMMUNICATION, PRESENTATION, AND
PUBLIC SPEAKING SKILLS FOCUSED ON STORYTELLING

A student ambassador is preparing to present at a school event but feels unsure about their communication and presentation skills. They tell their peers that they want to improve and express excitement about sharing important information with new students.

How can they practice so they feel more confident?

What stories could they share to capture the audience's attention?

1

Communication:

Clear speaking and careful listening.

2

Presentation:

Confidently sharing information about your educational setting.

3

Empowerment:

Using strong communication to guide and motivate peers.

4

Representation and peer influence:

Ambassadors motivate students through shared experience.

5

Storytelling and living library:

Personal stories create empathy and help ambassadors bridge gaps.

Key Takeaways

1 Clear speaking and listening build confidence.

2 Personal stories help connect with others.
